

Heatmap visualization of the 10x10 Hilbert matrix. The color scale ranges from light orange (low values) to dark blue (high values). The diagonal elements are dark blue, indicating high values, while the off-diagonal elements are light orange, indicating lower values.

